Actions

Went to Ephesus (Act\_18:24) where he was "taught more perfectly" of Aquila and Priscilla (Act\_18:26)

Went to Achaia the area of Corinth ([Act\_19:1)] (Act\_18:27) where he helped the brethren

Was so influential at Corinth that he was hailed like Peter and Paul when ones bragged of their conversions (1Co\_1:12, "Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.") Truly, neither he, nor Paul, nor Peter were important, "but God that giveth the increase" (1Co\_3:4-7)

Did not go to Rome s Paul would have preferred (1Co\_16:12, "As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time."); we don't know why, but perhaps there would be other opportunities

Paul later desired Apollos' company again (Tit\_3:13, "Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.")

Lessons

One can be eloquent, fervent, diligent, bold, and wrong

Every one should be teachable

The Message, not the messenger, is what is important!

Not all brethren have to do all things the same way
